

The no call law should stay in effect. They are annoying and we should have the right to privacy. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.